ADVERTISERS MUST COMPLY WITH CANADA ELECTIONS ACT

Disclaimer – Please note that this is not intended as legal copy. IAB Canada and its publisher members have discussed the standard terms and conditions and have drafted some common language that will most likely be present during the 2019 election period.

In accordance with the newly amended Canada Elections Act requiring disclosure of regulated political advertising and prescribed advertiser information in an online ads registry, PUBLISHER/PLATFORM requires full disclosure and mandatory registration data of any affected ad units during this period. Please note that PUBLISHER/PLATFORM reserves all rights to refuse ad creative that is not in compliance.

A NOTE ON "ISSUES" ADVERTISING

How to spot a regulated "Issue" ad between the end of August and the election:

- Is the ad flighted during the election period? Any issue ads transmitted outside that period are not regulated.
- Is the ad (factually) for or against an issue with which at least one candidate or registered party is associated? Any political ad for or against an issue transmitted on a platform during elections may be regulated.
  - social
  - domestic
  - foreign policy
  - economics
  - national security
